

One of Home & Garden Television's (HGTV) newest shows is gearing up for its second season and we're looking for a fun, enthusiastic, and knowledgeable real estate agent in the AUSTIN area to feature as our local Real Estate Expert!

Your job will be to tour 3 recently remodeled outdoor living spaces along side our HGTV Design Expert and critique each of the spaces to see which homeowner will see the greatest return on their investment. The show will provide viewers with expert advice, answers on remodeling values, and inspiring ideas for design.

Filming for this one episode will take place on July 22nd & 23rd. To get an idea of what you'll be doing on camera, check out "Bang For Your Buck" Friday nights at 9:30/8:30c, or visit www.HGTV.com/bang.

Compensation will be provided

If you're interested, please send a photo of yourself and your resume/experience (including number of years as a realtor) ASAP to:

Jenna Friederich, Associate Producer
