Why do you want to serve as an ABoR director?

Jeffrey is a successful real estate broker, a devoted husband & father to a beautiful 4 month old baby girl, and (when the time allows for it) an avid golfer.

He has been a member of ABoR for just shy of a decade with a plethora of experience in leadership, self-development, coaching, and mentoring.

Jeffrey wants to bring these skills forward with him as an ABoR Director.

His passion to ignite collaboration and build unity will continue to elevate our leadership on a local, State and National level.

Jeffrey is optimistic for the opportunities that lie ahead for REALTORS in Austin. He believes the Austin market is and can continue to be exemplary within the State and throughout the Nation as Austin's market continues to grow.
