

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GLOBAL AMBASSADORS

1. Austin Board of REALTORS® Global Ambassadors should communicate regularly with ABoR Global staff and the ABoR Global Advisory Group throughout the year to discuss relevant aspects of the ABoR/country relationship, including country real estate market information.
2. To the extent that participation in your assigned country's local annual meeting or a convention would be potentially helpful for ABoR to reach its objectives, ABoR Global Ambassadors are encouraged to attend the events as a representative of the Austin Board of REALTORS®.
3. If and when traveling to their assigned countries, ABoR Global Ambassadors should connect with their NAR counterparts to help manage appropriate introductions. There may be opportunities to meet with International REALTOR Members (IRM) and potential partners for prospective programming, events, or partnerships, such as higher learning institutions, exhibitions, and professional networks, as examples. In doing so, ABoR Global Ambassadors must keep in mind that any potential partner must abide by the NAR Code of Ethics. ABoR Global Ambassadors should be prepared to share relevant information about their respective countries' real estate industries with interested ABoR members. ABoR Global Ambassadors' contact information will be housed in a directory on ABoR.com/Global.
4. ABoR Global Ambassadors should attend/host any international delegation sponsored by the Austin Board of REALTORS®. These activities include but are not limited to:
  - Attending special global meetings and events set up by ABoR staff;
  - Participating in events organized by the assigned country;
  - Guide and assist the ABoR staff and global members in relevant meetings, conferences, and social activities.
5. ABoR Global Ambassadors meet a minimum of twice annually either at the Austin Board of REALTORS® or virtually. ABoR Global Ambassadors are urged to attend events of the Austin Board of REALTORS® global initiatives, especially ABoR Global forums, ABoR International Insights, Texas REALTORS® international committee meeting, and the NAR global programming when possible. As official appointees of the Austin Board of REALTORS® Global Advisory Group, ABoR Global Ambassadors are required to serve on and participate in the meetings of the ABoR Global Ambassadors Group. ABoR Global Ambassadors who cannot attend this meeting must request to be excused.
6. Any travel expenses incurred by the ABoR Global Ambassador will be solely the responsibility of the individual ABoR Global Ambassador unless pre-approval in writing has been secured.
7. ABoR Global Ambassadors should communicate regularly with ABoR Global Staff. ABoR Global Advisory Group and ABoR Global Ambassadors serve as the link between ABoR and the local international partnerships.
8. Austin Board of REALTORS® Global Ambassadors are required to
  - Attend all relevant global real estate meetings, events, and conferences
  - Provide a list of global programming and events specific to their country or entity with local, state, national, and international opportunities for attendance for their peers;
  - Provide economic overviews about their country or entity at ABoR Global Ambassador meetings;
